

Sunday Afternoon Invitation

Saint Agatha's
Faith Formation Program
702 48th Street, Brooklyn, New York 11220
Tel: (718) 436-1080 Fax: (718) 436-8870

Cordial Invitation:

Our students will soon receive their Sacraments, and so, there will be a catechesis on the sacraments of Confession, First Communion, and Confirmation. Students who take class during this usual time must be in attendance. Their attendance will be recorded. Parents/guardians are invited and we look forward to you joining us! This chat will serve as catechesis and deepen their knowledge about how the Sacraments are signs of the presence of Jesus in our lives and a means to receive grace from him.

When: Sunday, May 5, 2024 from 12:00 to 1:00 PM during usual class time

Where: St. Agatha's Lower Church where class always takes place

Led By: Deacon Alonzo Torres

In honor of Mother's Day, especially our Mother Mary, we will have a Holy Hour and pray the Holy Rosary. We will offer our prayers to her and pray in community with our students. Students who take class during this usual time must be in attendance. Their attendance will be recorded. Parents/guardians are invited and we look forward to you joining us! Please bring your Rosary.

When: Sunday, May 12, 2024 from 12:00 to 1:00 PM during usual class time

Where: St. Agatha's Lower Church where class always takes place

Exposed By: Father Silvio Ortiz

Once again, the catechesis on the Sacraments and the Holy Hour will take place during regular class time and in the usual location. Students must attend, especially as the program is coming to an end. Parents are welcome to join! If you have any questions, please send them to ffpagatha@gmail.com. Hope to see you all that day!
